NARRATIVE:

Davis, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include inflicting corporal injury on a spouse: causing great bodily injury, robbery, felon in possession of a firearm, carrying a concealed dagger, theft of personal property, petty theft, multiple possession of controlled substance for sale, transporting controlled substances, and violations of supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a 10 year term for inflicting corporal injury on a spouse: causing great bodily injury. Davis was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 8th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Davis qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for carrying a concealed dagger is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
